

I support satellite radio and free competition and speech. If broadcasters want to improve their offerings that is fine and that is what they should do. Not try to block innovation by going to congress and spreading money around.